From the pastor's desk

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This week we celebrate two beautiful holy days. We will celebrate All Saints Day and All Souls Day. It is a tremendous blessing to have so many different saints in our church who intercede for us. We look for role models in our lives and what wonderful opportunity for us as the Christian people to look up to these wonderful men and women to bring us closer to Christ. We are all called to be saints and may all the saints pray for us to deepen our relationship with God. All Souls Day is beautiful day where we remember our loved ones marked with the sign of faith and asking Almighty God to enter the kingdom of heaven. Let us remember our loved ones and pray that their souls may Rest In Peace in the mercy of God.

- Fr. Paul Kim

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Esta semana celebramos dos hermosos días santos. Celebraremos el Día de Todos los Santos y el Día de los Fieles Difuntos. Es una tremenda bendición tener a tantos santos diferentes que interceden por nosotros en nuestra iglesia. Buscamos ejemplos a seguir en nuestras vidas, y qué maravillosa oportunidad para nosotros, como pueblo cristiano, de admirar a estos maravillosos hombres y mujeres, para acercarnos a Cristo. Todos estamos llamados a ser santos, que todos los santos recen por nosotros para profundizar nuestra relación con Dios. El Día de los Fieles Difuntos es un hermoso día en el que recordamos a nuestros seres queridos marcados con el signo de la fe y pidiéndole a Dios Todopoderoso que entren al reino del cielo. Recordemos a nuestros seres queridos y oremos que sus almas descansen en paz en la misericordia de Dios.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2024

THANK YOU for your generous response to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. You may stay connected year-round to the Pope's missions, continuing the commitment of World Mission Sunday, by visiting MISSIO.org.

On October 28 the Church honors Saints Simon and Jude, two of the Twelve Apostles chosen by our Lord. They were two of the first bishops through whom our Lord established His Church and from whom every bishop, priest, and deacon is a spiritual descendant. Very little is known about these two Apostles, other than what is briefly mentioned about them in the New Testament, and even that is a little confusing. They are both listed among the Twelve whom Jesus names Apostles. Simon: patron Saint of carriers, woodcutters, and tanners; Jude: patron Saint of hopeless causes and hospital workers.

Iglesia San Rafael

As Catholics, we are blessed with many opportunities throughout the liturgical year to honor God and His saints and to pray for the faithful departed. Two particularly meaningful days are All Saints Day and All Souls Day, falling on November 1st and 2nd, respectively, each year. These feast days offer us a chance to honor those who have gone before us and reflect on our own journey toward holiness.

What is All Saints Day?

All Saints Day is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic Church that falls on November 1st each year. The day is dedicated to honoring all of the saints in heaven. All Saints Day also serves as a powerful reminder of the communion of saints in which all of the faithful, both those in heaven and those on earth, are spiritually connected. On this day, we not only celebrate canonized saints, but also those who lived holy lives, even if they are not officially recognized by the Church.

Ways to Honor All Saints Day

-On All Saints Day, we enjoy connecting with the saints through Mass, prayer, and reflection. It is a Holy Day of Obligation, which means we're required to attend Mass. It's an opportunity to thank God for the witness of the saints and to ask for their intercession.

-Pray the Litany of the Saints

This beautiful and ancient prayer invokes the names of saints from different periods in the Church's history, asking for their prayers.

"Lord, have mercy on us.

Christ, have mercy on us.

Lord, have mercy on us.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

St. Michael, pray for us.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

St. Peter and St. Paul, pray for us..."

—Prayer Excerpt from the Litany of the Saints

What is All Souls Day?

November 2nd, is a day set aside to pray for the souls of the faithful departed, especially those who are in purgatory, undergoing purification before entering the fullness of heaven. While we hope and believe that our loved ones are in heaven, we also recognize that many may still be on their journey toward the pearly gates. Our prayers can help them in this final purification.

Ways to Honor All Souls Day

-Attend Mass. Though not a holy day of obligation, attending Mass on All Souls Day is a beautiful way to pray for the souls of the deceased. The Mass is the highest form of prayer we can offer, and it's especially powerful when offered for the repose of the souls in purgatory.

-One of the most traditional practices on All Souls Day is visiting the graves of deceased loved ones and offering prayers for their souls. Many choose to light a candle at their loved ones' resting place, symbolizing the hope of eternal life.

-Consider saying these prayers:

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

"Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.

Let your ears be attentive

to my cry for mercy." — Psalm 130

-Offer a Novena for the Departed

Additional Ways to Honor All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day

There are many ways to honor the two feast days, while you live out your faith in daily life.

OFFER ACTS OF CHARITY

One of the spiritual works of mercy is to pray for the dead, but you can also honor these days by offering acts of charity in memory of a loved one. Whether through donations to an organization close to your heart or volunteering in their honor, these acts are a tangible way to live out our faith.
