August 20th: Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE PASTOR...

Dear Parishioners,

This time a few newsnotes about the activities of some of our “younger” parishioners these days.

This past week, Donovan Walker, following the recent, sudden death of his Dad, moved to Orlando, Florida to live with his brother. We wish him well in a new home, a new school, a new state—but we know we’ll be seeing him again on visits to his Sunnyside family members.

Stephanie Xavier, one of our newest Communion Ministers, is about to start the graduate program in Cancer Biology at the prestigious Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. Her recent internship experience at Downstate Hospital in Brooklyn will serve her well in her studies. By the way, Stephanie’s Dad, John DeSilva, has recently been working in New Orleans, but has accepted a supervisory position in the shipping industry, overseeing the region from Maine to North Carolina. It’s a wonderful opportunity for John, and he and his wife Subi and daughter Stephanie will be relocating to Baltimore at the end of this month. We’re sad to lose such dedicated parishioners, who immediately bonded with St. Raphael’s (thanks to the late Mary Martin and others in their building) when they first arrived in the United States less than a decade ago. A wonderful family!

Kelvin Salgado (son of Maria and Rudy and sister of Kiara) has just returned from a ten-day mission trip to Peru with a Youth Ministry group. He went in a spirit of service, learned a lot and relished the experience. Kelvin will be returning to St. Rose College in Albany this month to continue his studies.

Our weekend sacristan, Shiralyn Munoz, is off to study and dorm at Pace University in Westchester where she hopes to pursue studies in the pre-med field. Come September, she will be replaced at the sacristy by Forest Hills High School student Fabio Ortega, understudied (when necessary) by Fabio’s younger brother Andrik. These are two big “bruisin’” guys, so Altar Servers are forewarned about not hanging up their robes after Mass!

Sunday 11:00 am Mass-goers will soon miss the powerful, clear Scripture readings of lector Wesley Kra. Having graduated from Monsignor McClancy High School in East Elmhurst, Wesley is off to live and study at the College of New Rochelle. I’m not the only one who has suggested to him to think about using that resonant voice of his in a communication field (such as broadcasting).

We are proud of these young people and grateful for the ministries they have served in at our parish. We pray, as one of the Old Testament Psalms puts it, that the Lord will bless their comings and goings, now and in the future!

Reina de los Cielos es un título dado a la Virgen María, la madre de Jesucristo, por una parte importante de los cristianos, sobre todo por la Iglesia católica, y también, en cierta medida, en la anglicana, luterana y la Iglesia ortodoxa, a los que el título es una consecuencia (en disputa) del Concilio de Éfeso, del siglo V, donde la Virgen María fue proclamada "Theotokos", es decir, "Madre de Dios".

Este título o nombre dado a la Virgen estimuló la veneración que se expresa en la teología, la literatura y la liturgia, como la Liturgia de las Horas, la música y el arte. Desde el Concilio de Éfeso fue muy común la representación pictórica de María como Reina.

En los tiempos modernos, la Iglesia católica también ha utilizado el título de Reina del Universo para María, reflejo de la comprensión científica moderna del espacio exterior. El papa Benedicto XVI señaló que la aceptación de María de la voluntad divina es la razón última por la cual es Reina de los Cielos. Debido a su aceptación humilde e incondicional de la voluntad de Dios: "Dios la exaltó por sobre todas las criaturas, y Cristo la coronó Reina del cielo y la tierra".
